Company Profile

History:

NDI has been helping independent schools, colleges and small universities improve communications and build stronger alumni and parent communities for more than a decade. Our clients benefit from our deep understanding of their needs, a full-featured suite of products designed specifically for their markets and our experience of having worked with some of the most prominent advancement and alumni professionals in North America.

Founded in 1996, we are a private company, based in Toronto, Canada whose sole focus is to provide leading edge, secure, online directories and related systems for the educational market.

NDI provides a number of programs that make it easy for clients to communicate with alumni or parent communities and for users to search and communicate with each other. Our programs are full-featured, password-protected, modular and scaleable to your needs with easy to learn and use administrative tools that give you total control.

We currently serve more than 140 institutions in North America.

Products:

We offer a unique set of highly specialized web-based email directories, on-line communities and advanced email broadcast software combined with first rate support and customer service to organizations who want to:

- Communicate with their members more efficiently and cost effectively through email and advanced email features.

- Present their members with an easy to use platform to locate and communicate with each other.

- Enrich their member communities' experience.

- Minimize database administration costs and reduce maintenance efforts.

NDI Alumni: Designed for all Alumni Associations

- Secure Login: Password-protected login eliminates public access to contents. Each member submits and maintains personal data.

- Easy Search: Members can search for peers through multiple search criteria.

- Email Features: School can easily broadcast to a variety of lists and use advanced mailing options with templates and HTML newsletters.
